

JULIA SITKOVETSKY

SOPRANO

British/American coloratura soprano Julia Sitkovetsky has forged a burgeoning career as an internationally acclaimed singing actress. Known for her superior musicianship and firm vocal technique, she is sought after for her ability to sing and interpret the most daunting vocal repertoire.

This season, Julia performs her signature role of The Queen of the Night in Die Zauberflöte with Semperoper Dresden, Deutsche Oper am Rhein, and the Komische Oper. In 2022-23 she will sing the role with the Hamburgische Staatsoper and Welsh National Opera, returning to Semperoper Dresden for more of the Mozart in 2023-24. Julia proudly makes a role and house debut as Marie in Fille du Regiment with Grange Park Opera in the UK in 2024.

Recent seasons have included appearances at Deutsche Oper am Rhein as Le Feu/La Princesse/Le Rossignol in Ravel's L'enfant et les sortilèges and Waldvogel in Siegfried, and at Semperoper Dresden. Her debut as Queen of the Night in Die Zauberflöte with Scottish Opera earned her an invitation to perform the role at Teatro Santiago de Chile. Oper Hannover has featured her in Was Ihr Wollt and Der junge Lord. She sang her first Gilda in Rigoletto at Landestheater Linz.

An accomplished recitalist, she has appeared in concert at Wigmore Hall, on BBC radio, and with the Warsaw Philharmonic. The 2020 release of her CD of Rachmaninov songs with renowned pianist Roger Vignoles on the Hyperion label earned outstanding reviews. Music Web International said '...Sitkovetsky's fluency and flexibility of phrasing are eminently satisfying...a remarkable achievement by an artist making her debut on disc.' Her second solo album recorded by Chandos Records, was a CD of rare songs by Edward Elgar with pianist Christopher Glynn. As a part of the 2021/2022 season, Julia sang a series of Shostakovich songs at the International Shostakovich Festival in Dresden and Petworth Festival in the UK with Dmitry Sitkovetsky, Iain Burnside, Yulianna Adeeva, and others.