

INSIGNIA

A R T I S T S

SPENCER REICHMAN

Baritone

Spencer Reichman is a talented baritone from Austin, Texas, who has built an impressive career in the opera and concert worlds. In 2024, he joins the Florentine Opera as Biscroma Strappaviscere in Viva la Mamma, returns to New Orleans Opera as Sciarrone in Tosca, sings the title role in Zozobra: The Revenge at the Lensic Performing Arts Center, and is heard as Le Baron de Pictordu in Cendrillon at Knoxville Opera. In 2023, he covered Ophémon in The Anonymous Lover and Orpheus in Aucoin's Eurydice at Boston Lyric Opera, sang the Huntsman in Rusalka and Sacristan in Tosca, both with the Santa Fe Opera, Germont in La traviata with Shreveport Opera, made a debut as Mr. Ford in Falstaff with Salt Marsh Opera and sang Paris in Roméo et Juliette with Opera San Antonio.

Previous role highlights include Sharpless in Madama Butterfly with Central City Opera and Shreveport Opera, Sprecher in Magic Flute with Pensacola Opera, Schaunard in La bohème with New Orleans Opera Association, and the title role in Gianni Schicchi with Loyola Opera Theatre.

In addition to his performances, Reichman has completed apprenticeships with several opera companies, including the Santa Fe Opera, Opera Saratoga, Florentine Opera, Nashville Opera, Central City Opera, Shreveport Opera, Chautauqua Opera, Des Moines Metro Opera, and the Crested Butte Music Festival. He was thrice named a regional finalist in the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions and placed 3rd in the Southeast Region in 2022. Reichman holds degrees in voice from Loyola University New Orleans and Texas State University San Marcos.